What is Interlibrary Loan?

A book that comes from another library outside of the Aurora Public Library collection is called an Interlibrary Loan. Before making an Interlibrary loan request you must check the Aurora Public Library's catalogue to make sure the book is not in our collection.

How do I request an Interlibrary Loan?

You can ask for assistance in person at the Information Desk, by phone, use the online form under Services—Interlibrary loans or send an email to info@aurorapl.ca

OR

You can use the patron self-serve Interlibrary Loan system to place the request yourself anywhere you have Internet access, at your own convenience.

How can I sign up?

Library users must have a valid library card in good standing and have an Interlibrary Loan patron record created in the INFO system by our staff. To register, provide your full name, address, home phone number and library card number to staff at the Information Desk.

Where do I logon to access the Interlibrary Loan system? How do I use it?

Visit our library's homepage at www.aurorapl.ca and select Services - Interlibrary Loans. Users need to sign in with a User ID and password supplied by our Information staff when you register for self-service.

What if I don't find what I am looking for in the INFO system?

Contact the Information staff who will be glad to assist you in finding the book you need.

How long does it take to fulfill a request?

This varies depending on the availability of the requested book. Many requests are filled in as little as a few days. Harder to find books could take up to six weeks or longer.

How can I monitor the progress of my requests?

You can view the status of your request by looking at "My Requests" on the side-bar of the page to know when it has been processed, shipped and received. You can also observe if your Interlibrary Loan request has been cancelled because the item is located in the Aurora Public Library or the policies of the lending library prohibit loan. If there is any problem with your request library staff will alert you.

Please do not resubmit your request.

How will I be notified that my material is available?

Patron notification will take place once the item has been received. Library staff will inform the patron by telephone or e-mail. Prompt pick-up ensures that you will have the maximum borrowing time.

How do I ask for an extension on my Interlibrary Loan?

You cannot renew an Interlibrary Loan online. You must contact library staff to request a renewal of the loan period. Please contact the Circulation Staff at least 2 days in advance, 905-727-9494 x 211.
